Welcome to 27 Pleasantview in the cozy Crystal Springs subdivision. This one owner home is ready for it's new owners to make their own memories in it. As you pull into the driveway you see the 24x28 two car detached garage. In the home on the main floor you have the kitchen with more cupboard space than you could want with an area for a dining room table. Off of the kitchen is the sunken living room and the mini split. Down the hallway you have three bedrooms along with the main bathroom for the home that has been updated. Downstairs you have a large family room and another 3pc bathroom that also has the washer and dryer. One of the storage rooms has a second mini split and electrical panel. Other storage room has a wood/electric furnace that hasn't been used in quite awhile since the owner only uses the mini splits now for heat.
